Police say the 19-year-old nursing student opened fire at Chabad of Poway on April 27 during a Passover service. He has pleaded not guilty to murder and attempted murder charges.

Prosecutors have said the gunman fired at least eight rounds before he fumbled with his semiautomatic rifle and fled with 50 unused bullets.

The search warrants could help answer questions including whether the suspect got a hunting license to be able to legally purchase the representing the media outlets, including The Associated Press, have argued the documents should have been unsealed 10 days after investigators filed them in court.

Other media involved in the request are San Diego outlets NBC 7, KFMB News 8, Fox 5 San Diego, and the San Diego Union-Tribune.

Attorney Elizabeth Baldrige, representing the media, said unsealing the documents is important to ensure oversight of the judicial proceedings, especially in high-profile cases such as
